PRICE SMASHING ATTEMPT FAILS

Professionals Attempt To Force Stocks Down Without Result.

By BROADAN WALL.

New York, July 28.—Another professional attempt to break the stock market failed today. Early in the day an attack was made on United States Steel and it yielded more than a point from the high price recorded soon after the opening. The tobacco shares were then assaulted, and To-bacco Products was sold persistently throughout the session. It ended the tobacco shares held their own. In the late trading an attempt was made to cover the Steel sold in the morning, but it had to be taken back at a loss. Throughout the list there were important advances in special-ties, particularly in all the coal shares, New York Dock, United Drug, Central Foundry, Deere preferred and Owen Bottle. The independent steel shares were steady, but Cruci-ble yielded a couple of points at the close of trading.

The underlying strength of the market was due to expectation of an advance in general steel prices following the action of small independents. The Pittsburgh Steel Com-pany advanced wire prices from $2 to $3 a ton yesterday, making the third advance of the kind by these small companies. Most of the steel companies say that their output now limited only by the labor they

The quarterly statement of the Steel Corporation is due tomorrow and will be very poor. Stocks, however, are being bought on the outlook and that is good.

It was evident that the best buying on the tobacce list was in the control of the control as mail carrier in Hamtramck. Complaints from persons on his route that expected letters had not been received caused a search. It is charged that he dumped hundreds of letters into the bushes near Davison road and Oakland avenue. "They were just too much mail for any one man to carry," he said calmy, and went to sleep in his cell at the county jail forthwith.
